Vocational Pupils

Vocational Pupils Aid Poor In True Spirit Of Holidays

will be found more splendid examples of self-sacrifice and true holiday spirit of Him whose example is emulated during that period than was seen in 17 Merophis homes Priday, when as many stalwart young lads and bright-faced girls of the Crockett Vocation high school led members of their classes and in person presented bulging baskets of good things to families to whose homes no Santa Claus would come otherwise. Acting on their own initiative members of the 17 classes of the school some weeks ago started to save and plan for the work of Christmas charity. Self-sacrifice was the dominant spirit. Many a boy and girl gave up little luxplan for the work of Christmas charity, Solf-sacrifice was the dominant spirit. Many a boy and girl gave up little luxuries and as a result of this thrift and the work of finding who the needy ones were, each class, headed by its president, started out Friday afternoon. The presidents made the presentation speeches in homes of the needy, and besides the basekts of presents—not to be opened until Christmas—and non-perishable groceries and clothing, there was a neat sum of money for each family to buy meat and other goodles for the Christmas dinner.

J. L. Highsaw, principal, telsi of just one girl's case in the school which is typical. Little Golden Head, we'll call her, had a doll which had been her heart's tressure for nice years. "I love her better than anything in the world," she said, "but some poor little girl who might not be able to get another may want her, so here it is, send it to her."

COP FINED FOR NON-APPEARANCE IN COURT

Judge Richards Friday morning fined Patrolman Chandler $5 for failure to appear in court as a witness against James Knight, negro, churged with carrying metal knucks and said he wished he knew some way in which he could fine Commussioner Quinn.

Judge Richards then ordered that a verdict of not guilty be entered in the case. He said that Commissioner Quinn had said that if the court would give the police each day a list that he would see to it that patrolmen needed as witnesses in criminal cases would be en hand for the trials.

The judge ordered the sheriff to hold Patrolman Chandler until he paid the fine. Herman Goldberger, representing the public defender, represented the negro.

The best poultry show ever seen in Arkansas." is the judgment which H. B. Lansden, poultry specialist of the sagricultural extension division of that state, passed on the show given farmers week at the University of Arkansas, in Fayetteville, by the Washington Country Poultry Breeders association. Over 250 birds were shown and nearly 200 entered into the competitive exhibition. C. W. Watson, market director of the Chamber of Commerce farm bureau, who has received a report of the show, said. "I have seen the time." Mr. Watson said, when you couldn't get half that many chickens in a show in Arkansas. It shows that the raising of purebred poultry is getting along very rapidly in Arkansas. Among the heavy winners of prizes in the show the report mentioned H. F. Jackson, of Rogers, B. F. Pratt, of Prairie Grove, M. H. Satterfield, H. C. Porter, E. A. Stairs and Mrs. Ed Orne, of Fayesteville. Miss Nannie Wofford, of Rudy, Dr. F. W. Pickel, Hugh Hayes and H. M. Wright of Fayetteville, Fred Carillo, of Prairie Grove, and S. R. "HOME OF SATISFACTION' (SATISFACTION GUARANTEED ON USED CARS)

USED CARS)

The Paige Co. of Memphis, Inc., will suarantee every used car we sell. We will assume responsibility for defective parts and give nurchaser every assurance of satisfaction. This is something new in the automobile industry—a most radical change from the polley employed by all dealers in used cars.

Heretofore the purchaser has assumed all risk. He has had to depend on his own judgment or "luck." He could never he sure he would not have a big repair bill tacked on to the original purchase nrice. We are going to change this. We are going to change this. We are going to change this. We are going to assure you—to guarantee you will be satisfied. We believe this is only fair—that a man who spends his money for a used car is entitled to the same attention and consideration that is given to the purchaser of a new car.

THESE CARS HAVE BEEN RE-PAINTED AND EQUIPPED WITH NEW TIRES.

COME DOWN AND PICK OUT YOUR CAR. WELL TELL YOU EVERYTHING WE KNOW ABOUT IT.

DEPARTMENT

- SELECTED USED CARS.

Here's the difference between buying from the "trade in on a new car dealer and from us. We are the largest exclusive used car dealers in the South and buy only the "cream" of used cars offered for sale. A new car dealer is unfortunately forced to trade or buy any old junk in his anxiety to sell a new car over his competition.
